

Mobile Home Park and Apartments Owners Are The Primary Funding Sources for Yes on 98, Californians For Property Rights Protection

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS: $5,333,702.60

Apartment Owner Interests:
$1,948,024.49

Mobile Home Park Owner Interests:
$2,538,669.14

- Individual Mobile Home Park Owners Interests: $2,205,992.00
- Western Manufactured Housing Communities Issues PAC: $205,677.14
- Manufactured Housing Education Trust PAC: $92,000.00
- Sonoma County Park Owners Association: $35,000.00

California Farm Bureau:
$336,425.09

Other : $510,583.88

- $553,500.00 from California Association of Realtors, IMPAC whose directors and members are tied to various apartment associations.
- $425,524.95 from Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association's Committees, whose officers and key staff represent apartment interests
- Apartment Owners Association PAC: $408,218.40
- Individual Apartment Owner Interests: $349,015.00
- Orange County Property Rights PAC: $100,000.00
- Homeowners For Property Rights: $35,000.00
- Apartment Association of Greater LA PAC: $27,266.14
- Other Apartment Associations: $49,500.00

Sources: Secretary of State's Political Reform Office, Californians For Property Rights Protection's Forms 460 filed from Jan 1, 2007 to Mar 24, 2008 and Forms 497 (late contributions) Mar 18, 2008 to May 9, 2008.

Paid for by No 98/Yes 99 – a committee of city and county associations, taxpayers and environmental groups, League of California Cities and Californians for Neighborhood Protection, a coalition of conservationists, labor and business. A sponsored committee of the California League of Conservation Voters – 1121 L Street, #803, Sacramento, CA, 95814 - www.no98yes99.com